

SUMMARY OF 18th NCARC 2019 EVENTS

Sunday, October 27

Ikebana International Large Exhibit Workshops – Delegates work with one of four Ikebana Masters to learn the process for creating super-sized exhibits:

- Ikebana Master, Professor Manabu Noda from Kyoto, Japan will work with delegates to create an Ikenobo exhibit.
- Ikebana Master, Jose Salcedo, from San Francisco, will work with delegates to create an Ohara exhibit.
- Ikebana Master, Elaine Jo, from Atlanta, will work with delegates to create an Ichiyo exhibit.
- Ikebana Master, Kika Shibata, from Las Vegas, will work with delegates to create a Sogetsu exhibit.

Monday, October 28

Ikebana International Friendship Room – A place for delegates and guests from around the country and the world to grab a beverage, pick up snacks, take a break and network. Friendship Room is open Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

Ikebana International Exhibition of Ikebana Arrangements – Over 200 delegates have signed up to create individual Ikebana arrangements to be displayed in the 2019 Exhibition. This is open to delegates and the public. Opens Monday night and is on display through Thursday.

Ikebana International North America Welcome Reception and Dinner – Official Opening of Conference and Exhibition. Consul General and Mrs. Hideo Fukushima will cut the official opening ribbon. The dinner is a Western-themed BBQ and a Western Cowboy Event. Media guests, corporate guests, and over 700 delegates and guests from North and South America, Japan, SE Asia, Europe and other locations will be attending.

Tuesday, October 29

Ikebana International North America Business Meeting – Official business to be conducted by the Conference Delegates.

Workshops – Seven Ikebana workshops and three cultural workshops will be held.

Wednesday, October 30, 2019 - The Majestic Theater – Ikebana International Featured Demonstrations.

OPEN TO PUBLIC; TICKETS AVAILABLE 8/1/2019. Send name, email and ticket quantity to: 18thncarc@gmail.com.

Demonstration 1 – Ikebana Master Soho Sakai, Sogetsu Riji, creates a dozen demonstration arrangements.

Demonstration 2 – Ikebana Master Jose Salcedo, Ohara Professor, creates a dozen demonstration arrangements.

Lunch Break – at Majestic Theater (Box Lunch Provided for each Demonstration attendee)

Demonstration 3 – Ikebana Master Elaine Jo, Ichiyo Professor, creates a dozen demonstration arrangements.

Demonstration 4 – FEATURED GUEST MASTER SENKO IKENOBO, CREATES MASTER DEMONSTRATION ON STAGE AT THE MAJESTIC THEATER DALLAS.

Thursday, October 31, 2019

Workshops – Seven Ikebana workshops and three cultural workshops for conference attendees.

SAYONARA BANQUET – A Cocktail Reception honoring Consul-General and Mrs. Hideo Fukushima will be followed by a sake toast and dinner with Texas wines. Entertainment will include culturally diverse dance groups from North Texas.